

Requiem de J. M. de ...

Handwritten musical notation and lyrics in a historical script, likely a Requiem Mass. The text is written in a cursive hand on aged, yellowed paper. It includes various musical notations such as clefs, notes, and rests, interspersed with Latin text. The lyrics are partially obscured by the musical notation and some ink bleed-through from the reverse side of the page. The text appears to be a setting of a Requiem Mass, possibly by a composer from the 16th or 17th century.

Fragment of handwritten text from the adjacent page, showing the right edge of the paper and some of the script. It includes words like "et", "in", and "omnibus", which are common in liturgical texts.
